

NJSOPHE

Louise Chut Award for Program Excellence Award

Nominate yourself or another NJSOPHE member!

About the Award

Established in 1997, the Louise Chut Award for Program Excellence is awarded to recognize outstanding contributions made by a health education project or program. Recognized projects/programs address key issues in public health, demonstrate collaborative efforts, and show potential for replication by other agencies.

APPLY
NOW

CONTACT NJSOPHE

NJSOPHE
WEBSITE

ADDITIONAL AWARDS

Criteria & Info

- Awarded for: outstanding contributions made by a health education project or program
- Open to: NJSOPHE members (nominate yourself or another member)
- Submissions Accepted: Sept 7 – Oct 14, 2022
- Application Requirements: essay describing problem statement, objectives, and methodology

DUE OCTOBER 14, 2022